Do you still have this magnet on your fridge? This is a black & white photo of a green magnet that was distributed to cottages in 2014. These emergency numbers and addresses are still accurate. It is important to know that if you are calling for help from a cottage phone or landline, use 911. If you're calling from a cell phone, call 618/498-6881.

Mark Your Calendars for the President's Card Party

The LCIA'S President's (Julie Biedenstien's) Card Party is TONIGHT, Friday, August 12 at 7 pm in Town Hall. The wonderful LCIA board will serve delicious appetizers so come down early and fill your plate before the games start at 7:30. Admission is $3 and a $5 prize will be awarded to the winner at each table. Games may include Bridge, Canasta, Mexican Train, Pinochle, Tens, or any game you bring to play with a group of friends. Come out and have some fun!

Musical Duo Brings Toe-Tapping Music to Our Valley

The Nopartanuthins featuring James Jobe of St. Louis will share their talents Saturday, August 13 at 7 pm in the Donnelly Pavilion. They'll showcase their love for the brother-duet style of music that was so prevalent in the 1930's and 40's. While harmonizing, they'll accompany themselves with some arrangement of mandolin and guitar and include songs from many decades and more than a few genres. You won't want to miss this talented duo!

New Piasa Chautauqua Church Assembly Schedule

Sunday, August 14

8:00 am – Men's Breakfast and Discussion, Town Hall.

10:00 am – Choir Practice, Town Hall.

11:00 am – Chautauqua Worship, Chapel. Our Guest Minister for this Sunday is the Rev. Jim Poinsett, Executive Director of Interfaith Partnership of Greater St. Louis, a non-profit representing 34 religious organizations that seeks to bridge divisions and strengthen community through understanding, engagement, and advocacy. Jim is a Teaching Elder in the Presbyterian Church (USA); and he has served congregations in New York, Philadelphia, and St. Louis. Jim's previous ecumenical and interfaith work includes serving as Vice-President of the New York State Council of Churches and serving on the Religious Leaders Council of Interfaith Philadelphia. He holds a Master of Divinity degree from Yale Divinity School. Jim is a widower, having lost his wife, Robin, to cancer in 2009. He serves on the Missouri Area Board of the American Cancer Society.

Monday, August 15 (New Meeting Information than Appears in Church Bulletin)

7 pm – Adult Bible Study, Chapel. Our focus will be Chapters 8-9 in Discovering Your Spiritual DNA.

Focus on the Family: Thanks to the extended Colbert Family for being the Focus Family on August 7. Our Focus Family for Sunday, August 14 is the NPCCA Trustees.

10:45 am Lecture Series Presents: “Love That St. Louis Sound! A Musical and Multimedia Journey”

From the first known human inhabitants of our woodlands and river valleys and French fiddlers of the fur trading days to the rock and hip hop icons of the present millennium, St. Louis has been a town rich in musical history. Join local author Amanda E. Doyle, Monday, August 15 at 10:45 in Town Hall, for an entertaining and educational journey that will transport you musically from the early ragtime and blues to jazz and the birth of rock'n'roll, soaring R&B, funk, gospel, country, ska, Americana, hip hop, and more. Her book "St. Louis Sound, An Illustrated

Timeline," brings it all to life, and her presentation will lead you on a quick swim in the many streams of our area's musical heritage. (If interested, signed books will be available for purchase, by cash/check/credit card, for $39.95 plus tax.)

Chat & Chew Heads to Time Away

The next Chat & Chew will be Tuesday, August 16 at 10 am and hosted by Mary Ann Weyforth at her cottage, Time Away, 2 Jersey Avenue. Bring a little something sweet or savory to share. All are welcome!

Card Parties Resume on Tuesday Nights

Come to Town Hall on Tuesdays at 7:30 pm for cards, games, and time with friends! Admission is $3 and a $5 prize will be awarded to the winner at each table. Games may include Bridge, Canasta, Mexican Train, Pinochle, Tens, or any game you bring to play with a group of friends. Come out and have some fun!

Economics with Pete

Pete Kerr is back on his porch and will host his weekly one-hour economics discussion on Wednesday, August 17 at 7 pm at Bunkhouse 47.

With all of the youngsters returning to school, the topic will be “Public Education vs. Public Schools.” All are welcome! Questions? Contact Pete Kerr at (573) 450-6919[cell] or pmkerr@semo.edu.

Pop-Up George Caleb Bingham Presentation

Art historian and friend of Chautauqua, Dee Kilgo, will present a slide-illustrated program on George Caleb Bingham and the River Paintings, Wednesday, August 17 at 7:30 pm in Town Hall. Kilgo’s program tells the stories behind Bingham’s most interesting river scenes while providing insights on the highly unorthodox practices that Bingham devised to create these amazing paintings.

Step Back in Time to the Sounds of the Arcadia Dance Orchestra

The St. Louis-based Arcadia Dance Orchestra will take us back to the Roaring Twenties on Friday, August 19 at 7pm at the Pool Pavilion when they recreate the music of St. Louis during the 1920s. This 11-piece band is named after the once famous Arcadia Ballroom formerly located on Olive, near Grand Avenue. At the orchestra's performance, bandleader T.J. Muller frequently talks about the history of music in St. Louis during the 1920s as a part of his patter between songs. This event is sure to impress and entertain!

The NPC Community Theater is Back!

Mark your calendars for Saturday, August 20th at 8:00 pm for an evening of great entertainment on our Chautauqua stage! The NPC Community Theater will present "Seven Keys to Baldpate", a mysterious melodramatic farce, written by George M. Cohan. A romantic novel writer retreats to a mountain inn and gets more than he bargained for when mayhem erupts. The 15-member Chautauqua cast has been working diligently to make this another memorable Chautauqua favorite! Tickets will be on sale at the Administration Building and at the door.

LCIA Dessert Night is Headed Your Way

Please join the LCIA on Sunday, August 21 at 6:30 pm
at the Pink Geranium where you'll enjoy yummy desserts by some of Chautauqua's finest bakers! See you there!

Children's Day Pageant Wrap Up

We thank all of the children and parent volunteers who made this year's Children's Day Pageant and Games so much fun! Special thanks goes to our Pageant directors, Jenny Rausch and Debbie Vuagniaux. We look forward to next year's CDP - a historical retrospective of our past pageants. Mark your calendars now...it will be held on Friday, July 28.

Next year's Pageant is our retrospective on past Pageants. Please look for and submit any photos or videos of Pageants that family members of next year's performers were in. Please submit the files to <https://photos.app.goo.gl/rDLLACisnKMQLPYz7> If you have any memorabilia such as posters, costumes etc, please send a picture and let us know if they can be used in an exhibit next summer. Please contact Ellen at ellen.mullarkey@comcast.net, Deb at dvonyo@hotmail.com, or Jenny at jenny@karbick.com with ideas and questions. Next summer will be too late - we need to gather these treasures before next Memorial Day. Thank you!

Tillie's Shoppe

Please come in and pay your IOUs this week. We will no longer accept IOUs for the remainder of this season so please bring cash or use the Paypal app to purchase items. We are marking down items and adding more items to the sale table so come in and check it out. Riverboat t-shirts and fleece orders are placed. We expect the merchandise early next week.

Rules and Regulations Reminders

Golf carts must have lights to be driven at night and only 5 SEATED riders to a cart. Must be 16 years old and have a valid driver's license to drive a golf cart.
